

Hybrid nova released a new social networking site.

Hybrid Nova Inc. announces that its flagship networking site, Zigime.com, has completed its beta phase and is now live. Zigime.com is the hot new division of Hybrid Nova that is the ultimate place for social networking. Zigime.com is the premier destination on the internet for the business community. The site offers a unique combination of business networking and social networking through a variety of platforms such as industry communications, business branding, employment opportunities, social events, business advertising/service bartering, and even the capability to manage small to medium size businesses from the site.

Zigime.com has already had success in its first few weeks. Our investors are pleased with the site and over-all functionality. Users are discovering that the possibilities are endless for increasing business and visibility for all who visit and use the site to its full potential. From a business standpoint, communication and collaboration are maximized to a level not possible in the past, and from a social standpoint, users are able to be informed about key events/functions taking place within their community or business segment.

The portfolio of products Zigime.com has to offer is the best business and social combination on the market. Through the site's proprietary software, Zigime.com provides a secure environment for social and business networking offering password-protected areas of the site while still having full functionality of all sections. Zigime.com is the ultimate place for business and social networking with real results.
